REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

1. Comparatively little gasoline is being smuggled into China from Burma. Many jeeps and trucks, however, are being brought to Kyuhkok (98-04; 24-04). Trading companies and merchants are buying them for shipment to China. There are more than 20 vehicles at Kyuhkok now and considerable quantities of automobile spare parts. No cotton is being smuggled.
2. The Chinese Communist espionage headquarters for North Burma is at Lashio. They have rented the Chungshan School and the Ch'ingyen Society premises to hold meetings. A second espionage center is at Tanyan. Among other things, they are investigating the activities of General LI Mi.
3. The Chinese Communists have sent CH'EN Man-sen to Rangoon to buy 5,000 cases of ammunition. He is staying with CH'EN Jung-ch'uan at 98 P'aik'o Road, Rangoon.
